Scoutmaster's Minute (or 2)

As you are entering summer many more personal challenges await you, with more hours of idle time. Gentlemen always keep in mind what scouting has taught you, make good choices in life. If you slip and make the wrong decision don't give up let's see what can be done to correct it and turn it into the right one.

Have a great summer, can't wait for our week at Lyle!

Elroy-Sparta Bike Trail & Fort McCoy

Fort McCoy/Sparta, Wisconsin, May 18 – 20

More photos at www.troop222bsa.org

Four adults and eight scouts went on this campout. They covered 26 of the 32 miles including going through three tunnels. Coming around a corner towards the first tunnel, you could feel the cool breeze coming from the tunnel as well as see a stream of water flowing down both sides of the trail. Some interesting things happen when you're biking for 26 miles which has prompted some nicknames:

Dillon "Deja vu all over again" Armstrong

Alec "Ashes" Benner

Nathan "Energy drink" De La Garza

Chris "Like my cool new pants" Hush

Cory "Cajun style cooking" McKenzie

Tim "The tool man" Hush (charges by the hour)

Rob "Wrestlemania" Schneider

Thanks to Rob Schneider for arranging the tour of Fort McCoy!
